PREFACE.

WE herewith present the initial issue of the CHICAGO BLUE BOOK, the publishing of which we have undertaken at the earnest solicitation of many of our friends and patrons. We trust it will be received with the same kindness and consideration that the public has shown our other efforts, and that it will attain the place in their favor which we shall endeavor in every way to gain for it. We have spared neither time nor money to make this work as valuable and complete as possible, but the difficulty attending the compiling of such a book for the first time can be easily appreciated. We therefore trust that any omissions or errors will be kindly pardoned, and brought to our notice, that we may correct in future editions. We shall keep the entire work standing in type, that such alterations can be made promptly.

The title, "BLUE BOOK," is simply a name given the work on account of its blue cover. It does not refer to blue blood, as many people suppose. Webster's definition of Blue Book is as follows: "BLUE BOOK.—A parliamentary publication, so called from its blue paper cover, such being commonly used; also a book containing a list of fashionable addresses." We do not claim the BLUE BOOK to be either a City Directory or an absolutely Elite Directory; neither is it issued as a book for financial business purposes; but, simply, as it claims to be,—a list of names of twenty-five thousand of the most prominent householders of Chicago and towns in the vicinity, published in the most convenient form for social purposes.

On account of the many unforseen obstacles to be overcome in undertaking a work of this kind for the first time, and the care which we have given to the compiling of our lists, especially those of Suburban towns, which were more or less difficult to obtain, we were unable to present this work as early as expected. We will, however, in the future, issue each year before the holidays.

We desire to call the attention of our lady patrons to some new features which we have incorporated in this work, viz.: that of inserting the Calling Days in the street list, and the Summer Residences in the alphabetical list. We trust that both will prove valuable, and that omissions or corrections in same will be forwarded to us promptly.

Any suggestions whatever from our lady patrons, whereby we can enhance the value of this work to themselves, or information in regard to Social or Literary clubs and associations, will be gladly received.

1892. W. CONRADI, the well-known Composer, is the author of the NEW AMERICAN HYMN: 1892.

"Hail Thou Land by God Selected, Freedom's Golden Hearth to be."

Published by Clayton F. Summy, 174 and 176 Wabash Ave., Chicago.

The United States has no National Hymn of its own, until now. "The Star Spangled Banner," "Hail Columbia," etc., are National Songs, only, not hymns, there being a great difference between a national song and a national hymn. The music of "My Country 'Tis of Thee" belongs to England, and is the well-known old English National Hymn "God Save the Queen," composed in the latter part of the Sixteenth Century by John Bull (†1622).

There are altogether at present only three National Hymns in existence among all nations: the English, "God save the Queen"; the Russian and the Austrian. The highest critics of music have deemed it nearly impossible, or at least highly difficult, to compose the Fourth National Hymn, owing to the peculiar character of national hymns, and the circle of the musical elements and material which can be used in composing a national hymn being so very limited, that the composer is in danger of making similar combinations as those contained in the other three hymns.

The Chicago Tribune writes of the "New American Hymn" of W. Conradi, as follows: "The music, although simple, is full of broad and noble harmonies, and the score is far superior "to the general run of modern musical compositions. It would seem as though our country had "reached a point in its history, where it could afford to have a National Hymn of its own."

The music and words of the "New American Hymn" by W. Conradi were presented to the public by the Chicago Tribune in its centennial issue, 1889, at the celebration of the Nation's Centennial. The Hymn is inserted in a Grand Triumphal March for 1892. See p. 638

MME. A. RUPPERT,

The Leading Complexion Specialist

Face Bleach

No other preparation for the skin known has been given the prominence or has had its merits so honestly proven as had Mme. A. Ruppert's world-renowned Face Bleach.

The action of Face Bleach on the skin is such that it cannot fail in any case. Its effect on the face is the same as our wearing apparel by friction on the rest of the body, thus gently removing the dead cuticle which covers the pores, cleansing the latter of all poisonous fillings, drawing out from beneath the skin any discoloration or impurity that has been accumulating there for years.

One bottle, $2; three bottles (usually sufficient to clear the complexion), $5. Send 4 cents postage or call for sealed particulars.

243 State Street, - Chicago, Ill.
